

KINGS COURT TRUST

YOUR PARTNER THROUGH PROBATE

We are Kings Court Trust.

This is our songbook.

Our little orange manifesto sets out what we stand for and how we work.

It's inspired by our robin logo, and we share it with everyone we work with.

These five statements help us to sing the same melody when guiding people through the probate process.

Why a robin?

Folklore tells us that a robin represents passed loved ones coming to check in on you, hence the saying “Robins appear when loved ones are near”.

Whilst birds represent freedom, the robin is a symbol of good luck, happiness and rebirth. It is both friendly and fiercely protective.

The robin in our logo is the perfect representative of who we are, and a perfect partner through probate.

One.

We work hard

Robins are among the first birds to greet the dawn with their song, and the last to bid the day farewell with their melody.

We ensure no task is left unfinished, and our commitment to your needs through probate is unwavering. We'll be there every step of the way, ensuring everything is handled with care and diligence.

Two.

We're clear communicators

A robin's song is unmistakable and clear, and so is the way we communicate. We pride ourselves on being transparent and straightforward, ensuring you always understand our process.

Whether it's explaining complex legal matters or providing updates, we make sure you receive information in a simple, easily digestible way, without confusion or jargon.

Three.

We're specialists

Robins master the art of foraging early, needing to eat up to a third of their body weight each day.

They constantly hone their skills through changing seasons to find what they need.

In much the same way, we specialise in probate services, focusing our energy and expertise to ensure we offer the highest level of knowledge.

Our experience makes us well-equipped to deal with even the most challenging of scenarios, and our teams continuously improve their skills through additional training.

Four.

We stand out

With their vibrant feathers, the flash of a robin's red breast stands out, just as we stand out in the world of probate services. We take pride in offering a distinctive, high-quality service that's easy to recognise and hard to forget. It's one of the reasons why we've won so many awards*.

When you choose us, you choose a company that is committed to being exceptional and memorable, offering a level of service that is uniquely ours.

*Probate Provider of the Year in 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2024
at the British Wills and Probate Awards

Five.

We're here for you

Like the robin that becomes a companion to gardeners, we're always here for you with a friendly, approachable attitude.

We understand that the probate process can be stressful, and we offer a comforting presence.

You can rely on us for support and guidance, knowing that we are always willing to listen, help, and make your journey smoother.

When you need us,
we'll be here for you.
